

LIV KRISTINA FETTERMAN

2603 W. Main St., Suite B, Farmington, New Mexico 87401 • (505) 609-3956 • Email: liv.fetterman@wcrminc.com

LICENSES AND CERTIFICATION

Bar Information: Admitted to Connecticut Bar, October 2008

Certificate of Mediation Training: Received July 2006

Certificate of Advanced Mediation Training: Received May 2007

Certificate of Advanced Training in Land Use Dispute Resolution: Received November 2007

Certificate of Archaeological Law Enforcement Training: Received November 2008

Certificate of Archaeological Damage Assessment Training: Received February 2009

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Western Cultural Resource Management, Inc.

OCTOBER 2008 - PRESENT

Assistant Director, Archaeological Resource Investigations, Farmington, New Mexico

Conduct Archaeological Law Enforcement and Damage Assessment training classes for public and private archaeologists, law enforcement agents, and land managers. Provide damage assessments, investigative assistance, and expert witness services. Assist with cultural statute interpretation.

Harrison Law Associates

MARCH 2008-AUGUST 2008

Legal Associate, Providence, Rhode Island

Assist Casby Harrison in general practice law. Draft documents in preparation for litigation, such as objections and medical affidavits; speak with clients and assess medical records regarding personal injury matters.

Roger Williams University School of Law, Mediation Clinic

NOVEMBER 2007-MAY 2008

Mediation Clinic Fellow 2007-2008

Oversight of student-mediators in court annexed and non-court annexed cases. Mediate cases when case-load is high; handle calls from interested parties; make referrals; educate parties about mediation; assess case for appropriateness; prepare parties for the mediation process; and scheduling and coordinating mediation sessions.

Conservation Law Foundation

JANUARY 2006-AUGUST 2006

David Cavers Legal Intern, Summer Intern, Providence, Rhode Island

Researched environmental issues affecting the New England area in addition to general legal preparatory assistance. Met regularly with director of RI Advocacy, Cynthia Giles, to discuss progress.

United States District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania

SUMMER 2005

Judicial Intern for the Honorable Michael M. Baylson, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Worked extensively with Justice Baylson on both civil and criminal matters conducting legal research and drafting legal memoranda. Observed several criminal and civil jury trials in addition to the inner workings of a District Judge's court and chambers.

Public Archaeological Laboratories

JULY 2004-AUGUST 2004

Field Archaeologist, Providence, Rhode Island

Performed Phase I surveys across Rhode Island, as well as artifact analysis and collection maintenance.

Western Cultural Resource Management, Inc.

FEBRUARY- APRIL 2004

Data Entry Analyst, Reno, Nevada

Maintained artifact analysis database. Entered and edited artifact analysis data.

Field Archaeologist, Tonopah, Nevada

SEPTEMBER 2003

Performed data recording survey of historic and prehistoric sites. Conducted pace and compass maps and in field artifact identification.

Cultural Resource Monitor, Reno, Nevada

AUGUST 2002, JANUARY 2003-APRIL 2003

Monitored earth disturbing activities associated with the City of Reno ReTRAC project for local area utilities removal and replacement. Processed artifacts from Great Basin area projects.

Field Archaeologist, Southwest United States

MAY 2003-SEPTEMBER 2003

Performed data recovery excavation and total station mapping throughout southwestern United States.

GAI Consultants

OCTOBER-DECEMBER 2003

Field Archaeologist, Monroeville, Pennsylvania

Performed phase I shovel test survey.

Dallas Independent School District

Substitute Teacher, Dallas, Texas

SEPTEMBER 2002-DECEMBER 2002

Maintained regular class lessons in absence of regular teacher for grades K-6.

PBS&J

Field Technician Aid, Dallas and Austin, Texas

AUGUST 2001-DECEMBER 2002

Conducted phase I, II, and III surveys, excavations and mapping. Experience includes Texas Department of Transportation corridor surveys, phase I and II in Austin and surrounding area, phase II testing in East Texas.

Southern Methodist University

AUGUST 2001, DECEMBER 2001-SEPTEMBER 2002

Field Crew, Lab Assistant, Texas, for Dr. David Meltzer

Surveyed and excavated Paleoindian sites in East Texas and Colorado. Surveyed, mapped, excavated and collected faunal and lithic assemblages. Received training in the use of EDM total station operations. Performed lab duties under Dr. Meltzer's supervision.

Funded by American Institute for Yemeni Study

JUNE-JULY 2000

Surveyor, Mabra Palaeolithic Survey, Yemen

Assisted in investigation of Palaeolithic sites in eastern Yemen. Assessed geomorphic settings, mapped archaeological sites, and collected Palaeolithic and post-Palaeolithic occurrences on Pleistocene terraces during a three-week reconnaissance survey throughout the province of Mahra, Yemen.

University of Delaware

Fieldworker, George Read II House, New Castle, Delaware

JUNE-JULY 1999

Conducted two meter by three meter excavation unit, recorded and processed artifact collections. Participated in public archaeology, including supervising high school students in a summer program.

University of Pennsylvania

Internship, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

SPRING 1995

Updated and maintained Central American artifact collections. Awarded internship through Germantown Friends High School "Junior Projects" program.

EDUCATION

Roger Williams University School of Law, Bristol, Rhode Island

Juris Doctor, May 2007

Awards: Feinstein Institute Summer Stipend Award for Public Interest Summer Internship
American Bar Association, Regional Representation in Mediation Competition, Finalist 2007

Activities: Environmental Law Society, President 2005-2006
Amnesty International, Secretary 2004-2005
American Civil Liberties Union, Committee Leader 2005-2006
National Association of Environmental Law Societies, Board Member 2006-2007
Mediation Clinic (certified mediator, advanced training) 2006-2007
Mediation Team, 2007

Boston University, Boston, Massachusetts

Bachelor of Arts in Archaeology with distinction and Art History, magna cum laude, May 2001

Honors: Dean's Honor List, Multiple Semesters
Departmental Prize for Excellence in Archaeology
Golden Key National Honor Society

Activities: Archaeology Club, President
Scandinavian Society, Secretary

PUBLICATION EXPERIENCE

Assisted in research for Susan Bruning, U.S. Arts Law Update, 7 Media & Arts Law Review 129 (2002)

Assisted in preparing illustrations for Paul Goldberg and Trina Arpin, Micromorphological Analysis of Sediments from Meadowcroft Rockshelter, Pennsylvania: Implications for Radiocarbon Dating, Journal of Field Archaeology, 26: 325-342 (1999)

PERSONAL

Conversational in Swedish: maintain dual citizenship. Advanced proficiency in French. Interests include archaeology, art history, environmental issues and politics, backpacking, rock climbing, reading, painting, playing piano, and running.