Archaeological Resource Investigations

ARCHAEOLOGICAL LAW ENFORCEMENT CLASS

Class Description

Archaeological Resource Investigations' three-day Archaeological Law Enforcement Class provides training on all aspects of the investigation and prosecution of archaeological crimes. Instructors for the class are recognized national experts in this area of law enforcement. Topics covered in the class are:

- An Overview of Archaeological Resource Crime
- The Looting, Collecting and Trafficking Network
- Federal Statutes Protecting Archaeological Resources and Human Remains
- An Introduction to Archaeological Resources
- Archaeological Crime Scene Investigation
- Archaeological Damage Assessment
- Archaeological Crime Investigative Methods
- Archaeological Damage Assessment Methods
- Federal Sentencing Guidelines and the New Cultural Heritage Guideline

An archaeological crime scene practical exercise also is included in the class. In this exercise, class participants will be required to carry out crime scene investigation and field damage assessment procedures at a mock archaeological crime scene.

Targeted participants for the class are law enforcement officers and archaeologists employed by federal, tribal, state and local government agencies and federal, tribal, state and county prosecuting attorneys.
